

Job Description – Part-Time Visual Arts Teacher

Reports to: Specials Department Lead Educator, Head of School

About The Clariden School:

The Clariden School is a not-for-profit, private, fully-accredited, college-preparatory school serving students PreK – Grade 12 in North Texas (Dallas-Fort Worth area). Clariden works to ignite student curiosity and problem-solving skills by first providing a program that addresses the whole student. With a focus on STEAM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts, and Math), character-based kindness, and hands-on field study, our goal is to equip students for the jobs of tomorrow and to be contributing citizens in their local and global communities.

Employees at The Clariden School are expected to be respectful, responsible, self-directed, growth-minded individuals who are interested in not only providing the best for students but also developing and honing their professional skills. Employees are responsible for providing their students with appropriate learning activities and experiences in the academic subjects assigned to the educator to help the students fulfill their potential for intellectual, emotional, physical, and social growth.

Clariden is currently undergoing exciting growth on campus in its physical facilities and size of its student body. We just added a state-of-the-art Upper School STEAM building in Fall 2022.

This posting is for a part-time art educator. Interest and knowledge to teach students as young as fourth grade through high school is highly desired. Additional skills in graphic design and/or yearbook is a plus.

Requirements:

- A minimum of a baccalaureate degree or equivalent in early childhood education, child development, elementary, secondary or post education, art, or equivalent experience within the field of education. A minimum of three years of teaching experience is strongly preferred.

- A strong understanding of how children learn and develop; observation, documentation and assessment of students' work; curriculum development; and professional and instruction practices.
- A strong desire for professional development and a demonstrated growth mindset.
- Strong organizational, communication and interpersonal skills.
- Knowledge of the academic subject(s) assigned.
- Ability to instruct and appropriately manage student behavior.

How to Apply:

Please send a letter of interest, resume, and contact information for at least three professional references via e-mail to:

Dr. Jamie Segraves, Head of School

jsegraves@claridenschool.org

For questions, please call 682-237-0400.

Applications are considered as they are received, and the position is open until filled.